MEDAL
COMMEMORATING THE DEDICATION OF
JOAN OF ARC PARK
NEW YORK

DESIGNED BY MISS ANNA V. HYATT

MEDAL
JOAN OF ARC PARK
NEW YORK

New York, April 15, 1919.

Joan of Arc stands to all the world as an incarnation of the spirit of France. She has been the inspiration of the poets, the painters and the sculptors of that nation. The people of New York are singularly fortunate in their possession of what is one of the loveliest conceptions of Joan of Arc. It is the statue modelled by one of our foremost sculptors, Miss Anna V. Hyatt, and it stands on an eminence on Riverside Drive overlooking the Hudson. The City of New York has done itself honor in naming the surrounding portion of the slope, Joan of Arc Park. The American Numismatic Society decided to issue a medal commemorating this dedication, as an evidence of our admiration for the spirit of France which dominated Joan of Arc. Miss Hyatt consented to make the design.

The accompanying reproduction conveys something of the beauty of the resulting medal. It is distinguished by a feeling of mediæval style to which the figure of Joan in armor contributes largely. The inscription in Gothic lettering reads "Homage to the Maid of France". The reverse shows the banner of Joan of Arc, while other pennants in perspective convey a suggestion of the ceremonies at the dedication. It bears the inscription "Joan of Arc Park, Dedicated January 6, 1919".

Copies will be issued in silver and bronze, and the members of the Committee in charge of the dedication will be permitted to share with the members of this Society in the subscription; with this exception and with the exception of orders coming from abroad, copies will be sold only to members who subscribe before May 15, 1919. The price for the silver medals has been fixed at ten dollars, and that of the bronze at five dollars. Subscriptions, stating the number desired in each metal, accompanied by cheques to the order of the American Numismatic Society, should be addressed to the American Numismatic Society, Broadway and 156th Street, New York, N. Y.

EDWARD D. ADAMS,
JOHN I. WATERBURY,
W. GEDNEY BEATTY,
SYDNEY P. NOE,

Committee on the Publication of Medals.

NOTE—Since this circular was written word has been received of the canonization of Joan of Arc in Rome, on Sunday, April sixth.

FROM THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY, BROADWAY AT 156TH STREET, NEW YORK.
